LAST MINUTE ADDITIONS

- A The finest political silk ever seen. 2 1/2 X 7 black/white jugate in very elaborate design, eagle holding portraits, civilian portrait Lewis Cass of Michigan, military portrait Gen Wm O. Butler of Ky. The only known Cass jugate silk, purchased by me in 1983 for what was then a record price for any political ribbon. Some very minor discoloration, excellent. Has been in my safe for 14 years. 27,000.
- B Quarter plate dag of a work of art - original drawing of English or continental view, people on river bank in foreground, city across river with huge castle and fortifications atop hill, many homes and buildings below. Excellent, in full leather. 700.
- C Unusual 2 5/8 pewter mirror, not the usual design but one I haven't seen. Military portrait "General Taylor-Rough & Ready". Excellent 850.
- D Extremely rare celluloid razor, portraits Marx, LaSalle & Babel (?) Reverse "Workers of the World Unite...nothing to lose but your chains. Superb! 550.
- E Coca Cola celluloid bookmark red/wht/blk, nice 625.
- F Previously unseen Grant-Wilson jugate ferrotype not in Hake or Sullivan. Wilson portrait exc. Flake on Grant going from his collar to bottom rim, eliminating the R in name. Two other teensy flakes in background. Reverse pin broken. Would be $3-4,000 if perfect. 1,250.
- G Rare cello mirror blk/wht on bright yellow background. Couple teensy black specks on rim at 9:00 are under celluloid - something that wasn't screened out when litho was made. Haven't seen this before. 350.
- H Previously unseen grey/red/yellow felt with portrait Cody & 1892 calendar pad. The lettering on red might not show up in the photo - it reads Buffalo Bills Wild West - Summer 1892 - Earls Court - International Horticultural Exhibition. Mint condition 1,350.
- I John Wilkes Booth tintype, gem size 3/4 X 1", pristine condition 1,200.
- J The best of the political nosethumbers - Hancock with sword, Hake 3030, perfect 600.
- K The finest veterans flag I've ever heard of - 11 X 18 polished cotton, RWB/blk lettering. From the family of Sgt. Major John H. Wilson, who was wounded in the disastrous assault on Fort Wagner. Outstanding rarity of black Americana, near mint 11,000.
- L Previously unseen poster 14 X 42, blk/wht on bright orange background, near mint 450.
- M 22X26 frame, blk/wht litho with biography and history of Tuskegee Institution below. Near mint, dated 1911 375.

- O 18 X 24 multi poster dated 1920, couple insignificant edge tears and tiny wrinkles, near mint 700.
- P 10" plate with pink splash lustre border and interior rim of canary yellow, portrait "Be always ready to die for your country - PIKE". Some excellent quality restoration, great appearance, extremely rare 1,350.

- 1 One of the finest items ever offered in my catalogs. Miniature painting on ivory of Andrew Jackson in 2 1/2 X 2 7/8 gilt locket with loop suspension. Reverse mounted with lock of Jackson's hair under glass. Case engraved in script and block letters "Presented to the Jackson Artillery by Wm H Boyce, Col 74th Regt PM [Pennsylvania Militia]. To be fired for on each and every Fifteenth of March Being the Anniversary of the Birth of General Andrew Jackson". One very thin vertical crack in ivory by epaulette, not separated, otherwise superb 23,500.
- 2 The best political hat I've owned, previously unrecorded and possibly unique. Brownish black beaver having blue silk covering the entire inside. At top of crown the silk is embossed with uniformed portrait Zachary Taylor surrounded by inscription "I Have Endeavored Faithfully to Discharge My Duty". Below portrait is gilt eagle cartouche "McCloud & Son, 46 Market St, Philada". Excellent condition except for loosening of sweatband. 2,450.
- 3 Outstanding and no doubt unique painted silk flag 21 X 27, white (now discolored) silk with red twisted fringe, stitched silk sleeve for standard. Palmetto tree in green/brown, huge red bow around tree "Always Ready", gilt initials RG at sides. "Presented by the Ladies of Charleston to the Richardson Guards". The white is aged to beige and shows scattered soil and staining. Red fringe has bled a little into perimeter of silk. Unusual construction of silk stitched to heavier homespun, wrapped around the edges and trimmed (unevenly) on reverse. A second (reverse) side of silk might have been present originally. The homespun added much strength to the fabric and prevented it from easily tearing when flown. Overall fine condition - a wonderful piece! 9,500.
- 4 2 X 2 1/4 miniature on ivory in 5 1/2 X 6 1/2 gilt frame, the entire in a felt lined custom hard slipcase. With copy of original 1981 invoice from Avis & Rockwell Gardiner. Unsigned, circa 1810-1815, inscribed on paper behind the ivory "An original miniature of Thomas Jefferson given by him to Senator S Bradley of Walpole NH and given me by his daughter Mrs Mary R Tudor Jan 1877. [signed] George E Hoadley" It remained in the Hoadley family until purchased by the Gardiners. With various info on Sen Bradley and catalog entry of the Gardiners. Superb condition. 4,500.
- 5 Exceedingly rare large pre-Presidential Lincoln photo by Samuel Fasset, Chicago, Oct 4 1859. Oval card mount 7 1/4 X 9. Photo bold and sharp, excellent condition, but edges of mount show minor waterstain and surface wear. Ostendorf #16. 3,950.
- 6 Superb and extremely rare molded copper weathervane circa 1915-1920. Fully three dimensional WWI doughboy with rifle and American flag. Height 36 1/2. Stars and stripes of flag are fully embossed and retain 50% original RWB paint. Soldier has excellent grayish green patination. Outstanding condition - I've never seen or heard of another. 6,750.
- 7 One of the rarest Presidential medals. Obverse portrait James Madison (by Furst). Reverse eagle holding farmers tools above wreath "Industry Brings Plenty", quote from Madison on protection against invasion. White metal 64 mm (2 1/2 ") choice almost uncirculated. Listed as a mint medal by Julian (#PR-3), but the origin is actually unknown - Julian thought it likely a mint product since it was engraved by Furst. This example came from the magnificent David Dreyfuss sale (April 1986), and the buyer sold it to me recently. I am not aware of another example having been sold since 1986. 6,000.
- 8 Highly desirable ferrotype Jeff Davis/Beauregard on reverse. Excellent condition, minor emulsion loss on edge of Davis at 3-4:00 against brass rim. 1,600.
- 9 Scarce Seymour-Blair jugate ferrotype in choice condition, Hake 3015. 800.

14 One of the advantages of having a widely distributed catalog is that readers offer you items similar to those they see listed. I have offered several Charleston SC slave tags in the past few years and have had multiple requests for each. These badges were worn by slaves when they were hired out for day labor, to show that they had permission to move about town. Offered here is a choice condition 1 1/2" copper tag "Charleston #1096 - Porter - 1852". The Porter designation is rare - over 90% of all known slave tags are for "Servants". This particular one was discovered on Otter Island (in Charleston harbor) by David Topper and is illustrated in his book Relics of South Carolina . Condition choice VF plus. Accompanied by lengthy illustrated article on slave tags.	3,750.	30 Rare Lewis Cass 1848-4, Hake 3006, "The Constitution and Freedom of the Seas". Toned VF, wht met. 16 Extremely rare 1 1/4 black/wht celluloid made by Los Angeles Rubber Stamp Co. Two of these were discovered last year and sold in mail auctions. The first was perfect and was purchased by me. The other had a lamination flaw and sold after the first one for a couple hundred dollars more, no doubt to a disappointed bidder who regretted having lost the first one. The perfect one is now available at a modest 15% markup.	6,950.	32 McClellan 1864-19, Peoples Choice for Pres, wht met, toned XF	45.

25 - 66 - The finest group of political tokens I've had in my catalog in the past 15 years. A little smooth scattered pitting on blade, generally fine. Orig leather sheath with German silver mounts (clip or frog missing), gilt stamped IXL. An excellent Bowie.	2,250.
879 Very rare throwing - type Bowie. 9 1/4 double sharpened blade in form of spear, 14 1/4 overall. Blade stamped "Holdsworth-Sheffield", but virtually identical to the knife illustrated on pg 252 of The Antique Bowie Knife Book , and made by Slater Bros. According to Bill Williamson, Holdsworth was a selling agent, so this knife was certainly made by Slater. Smooth heavy brass grommet guard, strap & pommel. Ivory slabs with brass pins. A real showpiece in excellent condition.	3,250.
880 Unusual Bowie completely covered with rolled Sheffield blade (layers of silver and copper/brass rolled together) Sheffield scabbard with belt hook. 6 3/4 clip blade stamped "F Clyde & Co, Sheffield". Fancy S form guard with large engraved covers on ends of the pins. Sheffield grip similarly pinned, and 2 of the 10 pin covers are missing., Top seam on grip partially opened - that's how I could tell it was plate and not solid silver mounted. Extreme tip of blade broken (less than 1/8"). This last is the only real fault, since the grip seam could be invisibly sealed with a couple drops of epoxy. A most unusual knife.	1,250.

881 South American knife, 8 3/4 blade engraved "G C" in script, arrow on other side. Wood grip with brass wire wrap, 12 3/4 overall, tooled leather scabbard. Unusual, exc	175.
882 Gamblers dirk, 5" nickel plated spear point deeply etched "High Life", J Garcia, Solingen. Grip appears to be celluloid with spiral wire wrap. Leather sheath with clip. Exc, circa 1890's.	275.
883 Manson, Sheffield, 6 1/4 spear with false edge, etched in oval eagle cartouche "Americans Must and Shall Rule America". German silver guard, smooth horn grips. Orig sheath with surface scuffing. Etching somewhat worn but entirely sharp & clear. Political slogan from the Native American/Know Nothing movements circa 1844-1860. 10 1/2 overall.	1,150.
884 Scarce type of coin/counterfeit scale. 9" long with fixed counterweight, slots for all coins from 25 cents to $20. Large cast iron base embossed "Fairbanks & Co", likewise on top.	600.
885 Pipe tomahawk, 20" overall. 7 3/4 steel head with teardrop eye, octagonal pipe head. Probably an English trade head. Wood haft with 29 brass tacks, five file brandings on lower half. Drilled bone mouthpiece. Haft looks terrific, but it's a replacement.	1,250.
886 Great looking 17" Plains pipe tomahawk. Brass trade blade with star motif engraving, steel cutting edge dovetailed into blade. Haft is excellent replacement with brass wire wrap and copper mouthpiece.	1,400.
887 Unusual 13 1/2 spike tomahawk, handle completely wrapped in rawhide with two bands of red/wht/black bead. Similar piece illustrated in Newmann's Collectors Illustrated Encyclopedia of the American Revolution , pg 24. In my opinion, it's a 19 th cent piece.	500.
888 Unusual 9 1/2 carved wood (mahogany?) Pie crimper in form of dog. I sold this about 5 years ago & recently got it back in a trade. Exc.	300.
889 Very rare "anti garrote" knife, an unusual device for stabbing backwards at a person attempting to strangle you from behind. When pulled from the sheath, you have a normal looking 9" dagger, but it is actually two halves joined by a pin. When one half is rotated, the length increases to 12 1/2, with two sturdy spear point blades pointing in opposite directions. The only other type of anti garrote I'm aware of is a much smaller penknife design, one of which was on display (not for sale) at the ABKA meeting in Louisville. The knife offered here is signed "R. DENT", and is the only recorded example by the maker. Rosewood grips, brass guards, leather sheath, nice condition (few minor spots on blades).	2,000.
890 Some people are fond of saying bigger isn't better, but that's certainly not true in the knife world. This is the largest knife in Bill Williamson's collection. A massive knife with 19 1/4 blade, overall 26 3/4. Fully sharpened double edged spear point with strongly engraved scene of medieval warrior slaying dragon. One piece solid staghorn grip with heavy steel fittings. Steel mounted leather scabbard (one small loop broken off). Scattered light pitting and a small 1/8" nick in blade. Red #2 on ricasso would indicate Robert Abels provenance.	4,850.
891 Small 2 1/2 horn cup, "Souvenir of Pawnee Bills Wild West". Different!	300.
892 (dark reflections in photo) Very rare 7" sterling silver pocket flask with engraved cowboy on bronz "Let 'Er Buck". Hinged lid. Much rarer than the Unger Bros Indian items.	900.
893 Scarce 6 1/2 tin tobacco pail "Miners & Puddlers Long Cut", Leidersdorf, Milwaukee. A few scattered small marks, condition 7 1/2-8. No lid. Great piece to put in a mining collection.	300.
